Visa Waiver Program Restarts

There is great news for the travelers who are coming to Japan from overseas. The visa waiver program in Japan has restarted as of October 11, 2022 and it is now available for 68 countries and regions.

Since the visa waiver program has restarted, an increased number of travelers are visiting Japan and enjoying the shopping and all the many tourist attractions. Currently the Japanese yen is weak against the US dollar and some of other currencies. Therefore, it is a chance to enjoy your stay in Japan at a very reasonable price.

The Japanese government has also started the "Domestic Travel Discount Program", which started October 11, 2022 for the residents of Japan. It provides discounts on many travel expenses, as well as coupons, which travelers may use throughout the country. We cannot say everything is back to normal yet, but we are gradually making good progress.

If you have a chance to visit Japan, please enjoy your stay!
