In Japan, the celebration of a New Year lasts 3 days and it is very traditional. One of the most popular traditions is “Hatsumode”, meaning the first visit to a shrine or temple in the new year. People give prayers of gratitude and express their wishes for various blessings, such as health, happiness and good fortune in the year to come. There are more than 80,000 shrines in Japan. In case of the most famous ones, millions of people visit them for Hatsumode. Now that COVID-19 has calmed down, many people are eager to go to Hatsumode, unlike past few years.

If you have a chance to stay in Japan during the New Year holidays, please visit the shrine closest to your hotel and experience Hatsumode!

RECOMMENDED SIGHTSEEING SPOT

"Niseko Rusutsu" in Hokkaido is one of the leading ski resort areas in Japan. It attracts not only domestic visitors but also skiers from around the world seeking powder snow. And many individuals from all over the world will travel there on a private jet for a vacation to enjoy this world-class resort.

"Niseko" is symbolized by Mount Yotei, also known as Ezo Fuji, one of Japan's 100 famous mountains. From spring to summer, you can take advantage of its majestic natural surroundings, offering various outdoor sports such as rafting and horse trekking. The region is also known for its thriving agriculture, including melons and asparagus.

"Rusutsu" is popular as a family-friendly resort. Besides outdoor activities, the resort facilities offer families with amusement parks, pools, golf courses, and other attractions for young children to enjoy.
