LATEST TOPICS

The classification of COVID-19 in the Infectious Diseases Control Law will be changed on May 8, 2023.

COVID-19, is currently categorized under Class 2, which includes tuberculosis, but it will be downgraded to Class 5 which is considered as low level as seasonal flu. As a result, all border measures, including provisional measure, will be lifted as of May 8, 2023.

ATTENTION for those who plan to fly to RJBB

The G7 Summit will be held from May 19th to May 21st in Hiroshima. A number of diplomatic flight aircraft are expected to be repositioned from RJOA (Hiroshima) to RJBB for overnight parking since no overnight parking spots are available at RJOA. Therefore, for non-diplomatic flights which are scheduled to operate at RJBB between May 17th and May 24th, the parking spot availability will not be released until shortly before the operation date., spots may not become available or the aircraft may be requested to move from one spot to another spot several times, and once assigned the parking spot cannot to be changed.

RECOMMENDED SIGHTSEEING SPOT

Art Hopping in Naoshima

The Seto Inland Sea (Setonaikai) lies between the Japanese islands of Honshu, Shikoku and Kyushu. Its calm waters stretch over 400 kilometers from Osaka to Kitakyushu and include some 3000 islands, many of which are inhabited.

Naoshima island is an island in the Seto Inland Sea and is known for its contemporary art museums, architecture and sculptures.

The island serves as a main venue for the Setouchi Triennale Art festival that is held once every three years in the region.

The island is a part of Kagawa Prefecture. With sandy beaches and sunny weather, it has a Mediterranean atmosphere. Naoshima island is a relaxing getaway from Japan's large urban areas.
