OCTOBER 2021

JAPAN'S SEASONAL TOPICS

Autumn Food

In Japan, people say that autumn is the best season to have a good appetite. One reason is because matsutake mushrooms become available.

They are beloved by Japanese people as a taste of autumn. However, they are very expensive and considered a luxurious ingredient in Japan.

They can be cooked in a variety of dishes such as flavored rice, simple soup and so on. But grilling matsutake mushrooms is the best way to enjoy their rich flavor and aroma. If you have a chance to visit Japan in the autumn season, please try them.

Sports Day

The opening ceremony of the original Tokyo Olympic Games was held on October 10th in 1964.

In commemoration of this event, Sports Day was established in 1966 as a national holiday. It was established with the purpose of wanting everyone in Japan to become familiar with sports and maintain a healthy mind and body.

In 2000, Sports Day was moved to the second Monday of October to create three-day-weekends.

Autumn is a great time for sports in Japan due to the cool weather being very suitable for exercise.

Let's all enjoy sports and refresh your mind and body.

This year only, Sports Day was moved to July 23rd to coincide with the opening ceremony of the Tokyo 2020 Olympics.

Toba Aquarium

Toba Aquarium is located in Toba City, Mie Prefecture. You can see more than 1200 species of sea creatures there. It is the only aquarium in Asia where you can see Dugongs. It is a big aquarium so that it takes about 2 hours to see the whole thing. There are many events held there, such as sea lion shows and penguin walks.

You can also take pictures with walrus and see the feeding of sea otters and seals. Toba City is on the ocean so you can enjoy a lot of good seafood there. So, please come to Toba.
