Handmade masks have become popular in Japan

After the COVID-19 outbreak, face masks were sold out at every store throughout Japan. Necessity is a mother of a new business.

Many people started making original masks at home for their family and friends, and it has gradually become a good business for some. which brings in extra household income. It is perfect for women who stay at home. A wide variety of patterned face masks are available over the internet.

No Typhoon in July for the first time ever

The typhoon season in Japan usually starts in July and ends in October. However, this year, no typhoons were formed in July. This is the first time this has happened since the Meteorological Agency started keeping records in 1951.

However, so far we've had 6 typhoons created in August and one of them passed through the Okinawa region (as of 27AUG). In September and October, there are fewer typhoons but they are more likely to hit the Japanese mainland. Be sure to get updated typhoon information if you have plans to fly around Japan in these months.
